Chardonnay

“Australia’s great white hope. While Chardonnay has had a shaky past in Australia, it is well and truly back in the spotlight. International wine media think this is one of the best things we are doing at the moment, and we tend to agree. A classic grape with seemingly limitless expression, and almost all of them delicious.”

Other White Varietals

“These are not the normal wines you see on shelves, they have been around for hundreds of years but are seen less often. It’s really easy to fall into drinking the same stuff all the time, and there’s nothing wrong with that, but you can miss out on some pretty cool stuff.”

2015 Crittenden Estate Fume Blanc, Mornington Peninsula, VIC..... 55

The Fume Blanc is a name for Sauvignon Blanc that is fermented in oak. Most Sauvignon Blanc are fermented in stainless steel, which keeps this super fruity and aromatic. Fume Blanc, being fermented in wood, are more savoury, a little fuller and very tasty. They also age better

2015 Chalmers Vermentino , Heathcote, VIC..... 55

Imagine a Riesling without the aromatics. Vermentino is a perfect pairing with seafood or things that are salty. Light on its feet, unwooded and refreshing.

2017 Pike and Joyce Gruner Veltliner, Adelaide Hills, SA..... 65

2017 Domaine Wachau Gruner Veltliner, Wachau, AUSTRIA..... 60

2017 Badenhorst Sacatuers Chenin Blanc, Swartland, South Africa..... 60

The Badenhorst comes from South Africa, one of the ancient lands of wine production. South Africa is going through a revival, or a rebirth of cool, if you will. This Chenin has terrific texture and bright acid. It’s part of the natural side of the wine world, but clean and vibrant. It delivers lovely mouth feel (it just means its got a richness to it), notes of apples, pastry and spice and a whole glass of interest.

Pinks

“Are awesome. It seems a shame that they are grouped merely by colour as the diversity in Pink wines is as great as any of the other colours (red white and orange). Perfect as a winter white type drink or a light bodied red, they go with all kinds of food and rarely disappoint.”

Other Red Varietals

2016 Fletcher Barbera d’Asti, Piemonte, ITALY..... 58

Dave Fletcher is an Australian who has somehow managed to find his way into the heart of one of Italy’s greatest wine producing regions. After years of making only Nebbiolo wines, he has now expanded his production to include things as mightily delicious as this Barbera. It’s like a thousand ripe squashed berries, dense and powerful, but carries with it a savoury, graphite and almond type thing. Lovely tannins, expect some chew, but it all fits together so nicely. It’s hard to describe but easy to love.

Chiara Boschis Dolectto, Barolo, ITALY..... 67

Chiara Boshis is a legend. Her wines offer purity and power. Whilst the grape is called the “little sweet one”, the wine is savoury and vibrant and brings with it a bag of tannin and refreshing acidity. Perfume for days, pleasure for as long as you keep drinking it. You’ll want a meat selection or something to accompany the structure in this wine, it needs it, and you’ll want it.

2013 Scala ‘Ciro’ DOC Rosso Classico Superiore, Calabria, ITALY..... 61

2017 Ercavio Joven Tempranillo, Castilla La Mancha, SPAIN..... 47

2018 Te Mata Gamay Noir, Hawkes Bay, NZ..... 52

2016 Chalmers Nero d’Avola, Heathcote, VIC..... 52

I always think of this grape as a lighter bodied Shiraz. It has nice weight, dark fruits and spice. Probably more akin to a Yarra Valley Syrah than Barossa shiraz, but certainly an easy step into something more savoury if you’re willing to push a little boundary.

2015 Torbreck "The Struie" Shiraz, Barossa Valley SA	95
Torbreck is a modern wine icon making wines of serious intensity and regional expression. That expression of region is usually maximum ripeness and fruit delivery. This, like so many in the Torbreck stable, has awesome presence; it's rich, dark and incredibly comforting. Everything ripe, everything smooth and in balance. It's a big rich wine, but chiselled, not obese.

Cabernet Sauvignon & Blends

2014 Stone Dwellers Cabernet Sauvignon, Strathbogie Ranges VIC..... 52

2015 Nocturn Cabernet Sauvignon, Margaret River, WA..... 70

Beautiful. It took me ages to find the start of this note, but in essence, this wine is just beautiful. There is heaps of fruit, there is plenty of structure, it's amplified but not so much you want to only have a sip. You'll want to bathe in this wine. Cassis, cedar and tobacco, all the classic Cabernet notes are present, but in the new world fruit spectrum which is so bright and energetic. This is so very delicious.
